ESTATE PLANNING 101

When Bob found out he was going to inherit a fortune when his sickly father died, he decided he needed a woman to enjoy it with.

So, one evening he went to a singles bar where he spotted the most beautiful woman he had ever seen.

Her natural beauty took his breath away. "I may look like just an ordinary man," he said as he walked up to her, "but in just a week or two, my father will die, and I'll inherit 20 million dollars."

Impressed, the woman went home with him that evening and, three days later, she became his stepmother.

Women are so much smarter than men.

Marcus & Pam returned last week from 25 days in New Zealand's South Island. We travelled on 4 train trips, one steamship cruise, cruised up and down Milford and Queen Charlotte sounds, took one jetboat spin (see below) paddled sea kayaks, rode several gondolas to mountain tops, got lost for 4 hours in Abel Tasman National Park, clocked up over 3000 kilometres in two motor homes, ( the first one broke, but not our fault) walked in fresh snow below Mount Cook to the Tasman Glacier, also walked in the rain to the Franz Josef glacier on the west coast. Walked miles and miles in search of rare penguins, albatross, seals and sea lions. Marcus probably took over 2000 photographs. When he works out how to edit them down to less than maybe 100 ?? then we'll show you where we've been. It's such a dramatic Island to see.
