LAST MEETING: Wednesday 20th of August 2008

Program: Rotarian Robert Stone entertained us with a "powerpoint" and a great slide show of photographs from his recent trip across USA. Of course it was work for the first week in

New York followed by a couple of weeks travel with family to the west coast states. Rob was fascinated by the proliferation of “signs banning everything” in most public places. If you took the time to read all the “don’t do it” signs they put up, you wouldn’t have time to walk on the grass or spit or rollerblade or walk the dog anyway. Rob’s great photo’s really did convey the glitz & glamour that attracts tourists and gamblers to Las Vegas, the vastness of the chasm that is the Grand Canyon, the clean and tranquil beauty of Yosemite National Park, the beautiful beaches and wildlife of the Californian coast, the decaying memorabilia along the now abandoned “Route 66” highway and the sprawling size of Los Angeles with it’s rivers of concrete freeways snaking through it’s heart. Thanks Robert,

Apologies :
