Since our Changeover Meeting, members have had the opportunity to visit other nearby Rotary Clubs and attend their Changeover Meetings. All our neighbouring clubs look set for great achievements during 2012 & 2013. The District Changeover also occurred last week and we thank Kel & Jill Hobby for their fine work, while wishing new District Governor, Tony Spring and his wife Carla, our best for the coming year.

INVOCATION: For good food, good fellowship and the privilege of giving service through Rotary, we give our thanks.

TOAST: Australia and Rotary.

From Rotary Downunder Magazine: 3 magazines in 1

Rotary Down Under is proud to announce the return of both Rotarian Life & Leisure and Rotarian Traveller back into the main magazine on a monthly basis.

Rotarian Life & Leisure became a separate quarterly publication about 18 months ago, a decision forced upon us by the tough economic conditions at the time. This unfortunately led to a certain confusion amongst subscribers, as highlighted in last year's comprehensive readership survey in which many readers said they didn't think they were even receiving Life & Leisure any more.

And let's face it, while the Rotary content of Rotary Down Under has remained unchanged at around 44 pages since then, the magazine was looking a little thin in those months when Life & Leisure was not in the plastic envelope!

So we've decided to fix all that, so each month from now on, you'll still receive your usual Rotary Down Under content, but you'll also receive Life & Leisure, as well as Traveller, all in a 60-64 page publication.

This month's Rotary Down Under includes an in-depth feature on the new Rotary International President, Sakuji Tanaka, of Japan, as well as a full report on the recent Rotary International Convention in Bangkok.

Rotarian Life & Leisure's cover story is an enchanting look behind the scenes of the legendary Cirque de Soleil, while Rotarian Traveller goes to Fiji for that country's first food and wine festival.

This week's 'Attempt at Humour':

(Remember: TODAY IS THE OLDEST YOU'VE EVER BEEN, YET THE YOUNGEST YOU'LL EVER BE, SO ENJOY THIS DAY WHILE IT LASTS)

A Chinese man walks into a bank in New York City and asks for the loan officer. He tells the loan officer that he is going to China on business for two weeks and needs to borrow $5,000.

The bank officer tells him that the bank will need some form of security for the loan, so the Chinese man hands over the keys to a new Ferrari parked on the street in front of the bank.. He produces the title and everything checks out.

The Loan officer agrees to accept the car as collateral for the loan. The bank's president and its officers all enjoy a good laugh at the Chinese for using a $250,000 Ferrari as collateral against a $5,000 loan. An employee of the bank then drives the Ferrari into the bank's underground garage and parks it there.

Two weeks later, the Chinese returns, repays the $5,000 and the interest, which comes to $15.41. The loan officer says, 'Sir, we are very happy to have had your business, and this transaction has worked out very nicely, but we are a little puzzled. While you were away, we checked you out and found that you are a multi-millionaire. What puzzles us is why you would bother to borrow $5,000? The Chinese replies: 'Where else in New York City can I park my car for two weeks for only $15.41 and expect it to be there safely when I return.' Never laugh at a Chinese!
