This week's 'Attempt at Humour':

News Flash from our Northern Australia

The Australian Navy intercepted One Hundred and thirteen boatloads of people off the North West coast of Australia. This placed the Navy in an awkward position as the boats were heading towards Indonesia.

Another surprise finding was that they were all loaded with Australian Seniors of pension age. They claimed they were trying to get to Indonesia so that they could return to Australia as illegal immigrants and therefore be entitled to far more benefits than they were receiving as legitimate Australian Pensioners.

The Navy it is believed gave them media contacts, food, water, maps, DVD's, GPS's, satellite phones, fuel, 3174 cartons of beer and Jullia Gillard's private home phone number in order to assist them on their round journey.."
