District News / Rotary International News

February is World Understanding Month

District 9820 Geelong Conference on 21-24 February

Nominations for District Governor 2014-15 – from Kelvin C. Hobby

Resulting in the withdrawal of P.P.Chris Booth from the role as District Governor nominee, the position is being re-advertised. I therefore invite you to consider nominating a member of your Club as District Governor for the year 2014 – 15.

Nominations should be set out on the “Governor – nominee Data Form”, and in accordance with District By-Law No. 1, noting particularly that any nomination needs to be made on the basis of a resolution passed at a general meeting of the Club.

The eligibility requirements for a District Governor as set out in the Rotary International By – Laws are as follows. Governor qualifications

To be eligible for the position of District Governor, a Rotarian must:

- Be a member in good standing of a functioning Club in the District,
- Have full qualifications for such membership in the strict application of the provisions therefore, and the integrity of the Rotarian’s classification must be without question,
- Have served as President of a Club for a full term, or be a charter Club President who has served a term from the date of the charter to 30th June, provided that this period is for at least six months,
- Demonstrate a willingness, commitment, and ability (physically and otherwise) to fulfill the duties and responsibilities of the office of Governor as provided in the R.I.By-Laws (Section 15.090),
- Demonstrate knowledge of the qualifications, duties, and responsibilities of Governor as prescribed in the R.I.By-Laws, and submit to R.I. through its General Secretary, a signed statement that shall also confirm that the Rotarian is qualified for the office of Governor, and is willing and able to assume the duties and responsibilities of the office and to perform them faithfully,
- Have, at the time of taking office, completed seven years of Rotary membership.

For full information, please refer to the R.I.By-Laws, Article 15.070

Further information may be found in the Rotary Manual of Procedures, pages 31 – 33.
Please submit your nomination to:

On a Lighter Note:

A successful rancher died and left everything to his devoted wife. She was a very good-looking woman and determined to keep the ranch, but knew very little about ranching, so she decided to place an ad in the newspaper for a ranch hand..

Two cowboys applied for the job. One was gay and the other a drunk.

She thought long and hard about it, and when no one else applied she decided to hire the gay guy, figuring it would be safer to have him around the house than the drunk.

He proved to be a hard worker who put in long hours every day and knew a lot about ranching. For weeks, the two of them worked, and the ranch was doing very well.

Then one day, the rancher's widow said to the hired hand, "You have done a really good job, and the ranch looks great. You should go into town and kick up your heels." The hired hand readily agreed and went into town one Saturday night.

One o'clock came, however, and he didn't return.

Two o'clock and no hired hand.

Finally he returned a round two-thirty, and upon entering the room, he found the rancher's widow sitting by the fireplace with a glass of wine, waiting for him.

She quietly called him over to her..

"Unbutton my blouse and take it off," she said.

Trembling, he did as she directed. "Now take off my boots."

He did as she asked, ever so slowly. "Now take off my socks."

He removed each gently and placed them neatly by her boots.

"Now take off my skirt."

He slowly unbuttoned it, constantly watching her eyes in the fire light.

"Now take off my bra.." Again, with trembling hands, he did as he was told and dropped it to the floor.

Then she looked at him and said, "If you ever wear my clothes into town again, you're fired."
