This week's 'Attempt at Humour':

A photographer for a national magazine was assigned to get photos of a huge bush fire. However, the smoke at the scene was too thick to get any good shots so he frantically called his home office to hire a plane. "It will be waiting for you at the airport," he was assured by his editor.

As soon as he got to the small rural airport, sure enough, a small plane was warming up near the runway. He jumped in with his equipment and yelled, "Let's go! Let's go!" The pilot swung the plane into the wind and soon they were in the air.

"Fly over the north side of the fire," said the photographer, "and make three or four low level passes."

"Why?" asked the pilot.

"Because I'm going to take pictures! I'm a photographer, and photographers take pictures!" said the photographer with great exasperation.

After a long pause, the pilot said, "You mean you're not the instructor?"

11 PEOPLE ON A ROPE

Eleven people were hanging on a rope under a helicopter..
10 men and 1 woman.

The rope was not strong enough to carry them all so they decided that one had to let go, otherwise they were all going to fall.

They weren't able to choose that person, until the woman gave a very touching speech.

She said that she would voluntarily let go of the rope, because, as a woman, she was used to giving up everything for her husband and kids or for men in general, and was used to always making sacrifices with little in return.

As soon as she finished her speech,
All the men started clapping . . .
